

Kassi Grunder

Kassi Grunder is an artist, a spiritual cartographer, and world peace enthusiast. She has always loved creating both tiny, beautiful objects, and transformative experiences. Through jewelry, she seeks to do both.

Kassi is an Alaskan through and through, but has lived all over the place, and currently resides in San Diego, California. She studied art in undergrad, where she primarily hung out in the printmaking studio making huge prints, and in the bookbinding room making tiny books. This was also when she first made jewelry (that wasn't a friendship bracelet).

In addition to her passion for making beautiful things, Kassi is passionate about social justice and holds a master's degree in Peace and Justice and a graduate certificate in Global Peace Education. She is a veteran facilitator, and loves bringing people together to learn from each other.
